INHABITANTS OF "JUNGLES"

THEY KEEP MOVING

Transients, And Hoboes Live At Local "Jungle"

By ALBERT DENEGRIE

Kelowna's "jungles" are alive again! Transient workers, drifters and hoboes are again making their appearance in the city, some of them lured here by the prospect of helping harvest the bumper apple crop.

Others come because they like the climate and environment here. None stay long; some leave by their own choice, while others have no alternative. The latter are picked up by police as undesirable, charged as vagrants, and given a few hours to leave the city.

Probably there are hundreds of persons in this area who are unaware that a "hobo's haven" exists in Kelowna and flourishes around this time of the year. Whether this comes as a shock, or not, there is a section of the city where transients hang out and eke out a miserable existence—an existence that most of us would shun. Places like these are commonly referred to as the "jungles."

BESIDE TRACKS
Kelowna's "jungles" are situated on a fairly large tract of open land immediately north of Simpson's sawmill, and is bounded on the east by Ellis Street and on the west by the railway tracks.

In fact most of the life seems to centre around the railway tracks, off behind the Shell Oil plant, and especially where tiny, sinfully Brand's creek runs under the tracks in its slow meandering to the lake.

When we—Courier photographer Irving Gorbey and myself—arrived on the scene at 10 o'clock, there were five fellows, two apparently making ready to go somewhere and three sitting in the shade, on a rail, under a box car.

THE "HOLE"
The three were cooperative and friendly, and to our questions, told us their sleeping quarters were down a ways toward the Simpson plant. So we went to see the "hole" as it was called—a makeshift, low lean-to, made of old timbers and boards and packing cases.

The floor was littered with straw, wrapping paper, sacks, anything that might be some comfort for sleeping. An old piece of burlap was draped over the side to help keep out the cold night air.

A short distance away were many old, large, rusted culvert pipes and boilers, which also provided night shelter for the wanderers. When we returned to the men, only two of the original five were left. They talked freely and consented to have their pictures taken. The night before, one of them said, there were nine of them staying there. They thought there might be 20 or so the next night.

BOTH VETERANS

Both men were poorly clad, unshaven, short in stature but long in philosophy. The older, who gave his name as E. W. Fanton, 73, of North Burnaby, said he didn't mind this kind of life. "It's all right, I guess, it's a little exciting once in a while," said he. The other man was shorter, leaner, said flatly that he didn't like it at all. "We were forced into this life years ago during the depression."

He wasn't exactly bitter, but he blamed society for its unwritten rule of "over 45 not wanted." He gave his name as James Watkins, 61, of Vancouver.

Both claimed to be World War I veterans, Fanton with the Edmonton Regiment, and Watkins with the 102nd B.C. Regiment. Fanton claimed he was a "burnt out" veteran, one who receives a veteran's allowance and an old age pensioner. He said he came to Kelowna on the bus a couple of weeks ago and expected to be moving on in "a couple of days."

Watkins rode the freights in such practices, reminiscent of the "thirties" still are prevalent in the Okanagan in apple harvest time, he said.

POLICE RAID

Possibly some of the excitement that Fanton referred to occurred during the early hours of Saturday morning when Royal Canadian Mounted Police called around and arrested six men.

All appeared in police court Monday morning, charged as vagrants, and were fined $10 each for one day. All served the time, and upon release Tuesday left for other climes. They had 24 hours to leave.

"We're watching the situation closely," the police said. "You get a lot of tough characters around here like this, and we simply don't want them."

And so, there may be more excitement for Fanton, if he stays around long enough and the camp builds up, as he predicted that it would.

Willing posers for Courier cameraman are James Watkins (seated) and E. W. Fanton, both from coast, sole inhabitants of Kelowna's "jungles" yesterday morning.

Board, table, with cardboard covering is near open fire (to left) and surrounded by debris including beer bottles. "Facilities" were used by nine transients the night before, seven of whom already had left, some to work in orchards. Most inhabitants sleep in own bedrolls, but some in low lean-to-shed on left, referred to in camp lingo as the "hole." Wrapping paper and sacks, used for bedding, can be seen inside "hole." Hard-ground "mattress" is cushioned with straw, grass, and paper. (Courier Staff Photos)

Sloan Study 'Overboard'

VANCOUVER (CP) — Top executives of major B.C. forest industry companies say Chief Justice Gordon Sloan may have "gone" too far in protecting the "smaller operator" in his report on the industry.

The industry leaders, who are giving their views on the report freely as long as their names aren't quoted yet, said they will send detailed briefs to Premier Bennett praising the report but expressing concern and even alarm at some of its recommendations.

At present the smaller logger is entitled to a 30 per cent cut of crown-owned timber in recently-granted forest management licences.

MID-AGE STILL BEST WORKERS

LONDON (CP) — A research team from Bristol University says the best age for taking on a workman is between 37 and 44.

The team, reporting in the journal Occupational Psychology, says men over 37 give longer service and fewer of them want to leave their jobs. The worst age, from the point of view of keeping workers, is between 21 and 28.

Turkish Flood Toll Said 1,000

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Turkish newspapers said today 1,000 persons died in floods which swept through the crooked streets of seven villages on Ankara's outskirts Wednesday.

In some areas the flood wave reached 60 feet as water from cloudbursts rushed down narrow valleys from barren, treeless mountain slopes.

U.S. Phone Strike Won't Affect B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP) — The strike of 54,000 Communications Workers of America scheduled for Monday, is not expected to affect long-distance telephone calls between B.C. and the United States.

A B.C. telephone spokesman made this statement Wednesday following the announcement that the workers—all of them engaged in installation and manufacturing of equipment—would go on strike.

OTHER CHANGES?

PM Confirms Foreign Post

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker today named Dr. Sydney E. Smith, president of the University of Toronto, as Canada's external affairs minister.

The prime minister in making the announcement, confirmed reports prevalent on Parliament Hill for days, that Dr. Smith would take over the post held by Lester Pearson in the Liberal cabinet.

Dr. Smith will be sworn in at 10 a.m. EDT Friday and immediately afterward will attend his first cabinet meeting where he will be introduced to his colleagues.

Mr. Diefenbaker said he had no other announcements to make. When asked by reporters whether he would be announcing Senate appointments this week, he said "we are working on that," and announcements would be made before the opening of Parliament Oct. 14.

Earlier it was reported that the swearing in of Dr. Smith would complete the Progressive Conservative cabinet realignment for the present. Mr. Diefenbaker has held the external affairs portfolio in addition to his own responsibilities since the Conservatives came to power June 21, 1957.

SPECULATION
To published speculation that a further change would see Justice Minister Davie Fulton assume full-time responsibility for the citizenship and immigration department, which he now administers on an acting basis, the prime minister said today:

"There is no foundation for that in the slightest degree." The report would have had Solicitor-General Fulton assume the justice portfolio.

Dr. Smith would take over direction of the external affairs department immediately but a requirement that 60 days elapse before the calling and the holding of a federal byelection would prevent him from sitting in Parliament when it opens Oct. 14.

SENATE APPOINTMENT
The expectation is that the safe Toronto-Greenwood riding—now held by J. M. Macdonnell, minister without portfolio—would be opened for him by naming Mr. Macdonnell to the Senate. The minister now is en route home from Malaya, where he attended that country's inauguration into the Commonwealth as an independent state.

Greenwood is considered a safe Conservative constituency, never having elected a Liberal since it was created in a 1933 redistribution of Commons representation.

One of Dr. Smith's first duties in his new job would be to head Canada's delegation to the new session of the United Nations General Assembly opening in New York Tuesday.

Mr. Macdonnell is seen as eventually replacing 80-year-old Senator John T. Haig of Winnipeg as the new government's leader in the Senate.

Syrian Chief, Nasser Confer; Russian Reveals New Missile

CAIRO (AP) — Syria's military leader held urgent talks today with President Nasser and other Egyptian officials and declared that Syria is prepared to meet all "imperialistic conspiracies."

"Every Syrian national is prepared to shed his blood for the sake of preserving his country's independence," Gen. Afif Bizry, leftist commander-in-chief of the Syrian Army, said in an interview with the newspaper Al-Ahram.

Syria now is fortified against all imperialistic conspiracies and the people and the army are united in one front."

SURPRISE VISIT
Bizry and Lt.-Col. Abel Hamid Serraj, Syrian Army intelligence chief, arrived Wednesday on a surprise visit that underlined deepening Arab concern over the Syrian crisis.

Asked to comment on charges that the U.S. government is seeking to overthrow Syria's regime, Bizry said:

Jury Will Get "Confidential" Case Next Week

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The state of California is trying to put Confidential out of business in a "witch hunt," the defence has contended at the magazine's criminal libel trial.

"The indictments were returned not to punish someone but to put a magazine out of business," lawyer Arthur J. Crowley said in his final argument to the jury. Crowley said the motion picture industry protests an element within its own ranks which has "brought disgrace upon Hollywood."

As the final arguments lengthened it began to appear doubtful that the jury will get the case before early next week.

Youths Spit, Hurl Objects at Negro

Even Huck Finn Joins Race Fray

(Compiled from Associated Press Dispatches)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Tennessee verbal bitterness drummed a background to Arkansas Governor Orval Faubus' move today to take school racial integration problems direct to President Eisenhower.

Meanwhile, after far-removed racial hatred flared as far north as Alaska and darkened Alabama news pages, in the deep south Wednesday, Charlotte, North Carolina, joined the race hate campaign. A Negro student in Charlotte was spit upon and struck with thrown objects.

Even the all-time Mark Twain classic "Huckleberry Finn" was hurled into the inflammatory national squabble in the relatively non-racial New York atmosphere Wednesday night. The book was dropped officially from the approved list for the city's elementary and junior high schools because Negroes complained it was "radically offensive" to their race.

Meanwhile, President Eisenhower and Arkansas Governor Orval Faubus arranged to confer in Newport, R.I., Saturday.

They will make a supreme effort to crack the federal-state deadlock over Little Rock school integration.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, announced at the president's vacation headquarters that word of Faubus' decision to come here Saturday had been received from Representative Brooks Hays (Dem.-Ark.).

CAROLINA TROUBLE
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Negro student Dorothy Counts, after a week of relative peace, again became the target of spit and thrown objects from her white schoolmates at Harding High School here.

Dorothy, the only Negro among 1,160 students said yesterday "was the roughest I have had since last Wednesday."

She reported that: Twice while she stood before her book locker, objects struck her in the back. When she passed through the school's crowded corridor, students spat upon her.

Someone in a group of white teen-age youths hurled an object at her brother's car and broke the rear window. The brother had gone to the school to take her to lunch.

Dorothy is one of four Negroes who entered four white schools here last week. At that time, a mob of jeering white youths spat on her and tossed pebbles and sticks as she left the school building.

Except for social isolation from her fellow students, 15-year-old Dorothy said she was not hurt.

RIOT LEADER

One Man Fomented Troubles

By BILL RAWLINS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — John Kasper, arrested for fomenting school integration trouble here just as he was at Clinton, Tenn. a year ago, appears undaunted by two federal contempt convictions.

His tactics are the same—only the names have been changed to fit the situation. He still preaches disregard of constituted authority, hate for "Nigras" (never Negroes) and hate for Jews (never capitalists in his inflammatory handbills).

Despite his contention that he advocates what he calls "peaceful" resistance to racial integration, a recent handbill distributed by the Tennessee White Citizens Council, whose office is Kasper's hip pocket, declares:

BAND GETTING "SPRUCED UP"

Members of the Kelowna Junior Band are getting "spruced up" in preparation for their trip to Calgary next Saturday. The local aggregation will perform at the Calgary-Winnipeg football game.

In the above picture, 14-year-old Penny Trump, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bev Trump, 1975

The group will stage a dress rehearsal in the City Park oval tonight at 8:30. Public is invited to attend.

Valley Apples Unable TO Dent Ont. Market

Despite the earlier-than-normal McIntosh crop in the Okanagan, the British Columbia apple has not been able to dent the Ontario markets where the Macs are just beginning to be picked now.

Reason for this, according to B.C. Tree Fruits officials, is that New York and Michigan apples also were marketed before the Ontario apples and could be placed on the Ontario market at less cost than Okanagan Macs.

The American apples arrived at Toronto for as low as $2.50 wholesale.

B.C. Tree Fruits sales to Eastern Canada were restricted to five cartons of hand-picks to Newfoundland, where it is hoped to market more later on, and one car to Northern Ontario.

MARKET ESTABLISHED

However, the market in the western provinces has already been firmly established and with Ontario and Quebec apples being later, B.C.T.F. hopes to retain that market.

After a slow start in the early part of last week, shipments to market picked up speed and volume toward the end of the week and during the early part of this week, so that by Tuesday night over 600,000 hand-picks had been shipped out.

Local Riders, Exhibitors Figure At Armstrong Fair

ARMSTRONG—Kelowna riders and exhibitors figured strongly in the 57th annual Provincial Exhibition here.

Ideal weather has prevailed for the three-day affair which concludes tonight. Thousands of people have flocked to the grounds, and judges judged the quality of produce exhibited in the show.

Today a heavy schedule is on tap, before the exhibition closes tonight. One of the highlights of yesterday's show was the light horse competition. The junior jumping event was won by Norman Wilson of Kelowna. The event, for 16-year-olds and under, drew the attention of a large crowd to the grandstand.

Miss Wilson was awarded the L. K. LaLonde Challenge Trophy for her fine performance. Second went to Brookside Stables, Kelowna, and third and fourth standings to O. D. Cameron's entry from Kelowna.

Most of the judging of the numerous exhibits was completed, but there are still a great deal to be judged and that will be done today.

Top four exhibitors in the vegetable division judging were Frank Lenz of Kelowna, F. W. Hack, Oliver, William May, Summerland, and E. E. Cole, Armstrong.

In flower exhibits, William May of Summerland, Mrs. A. Reimer of Enderby, Frank Lenz of Kelowna and Mrs. L. K. LaLonde of Vernon led the entries.

Armstrong High School finished first in the vocational agriculture judging. Rutland High School was second, Penitence third and Vernon fourth.

Vernon's Girls' Trumpet Band added color to the fair and gave its usual excellent performance in the afternoon. The Vernettes Drill Team also performed.

A large crowd took in the professional grandstand show in the afternoon and evening and the same is expected tonight for the final show.

INDIAN ANGELICAN Bishop Remote

BRANDON, Man. (CP) — The possibility is remote that any Canadian Indian in the near future will become a bishop of the Anglican Church of Canada, an Anglican church leader says.

The Most Rev. W. H. Barfoot, archbishop of Rupert's Land and primate of all Canada, said in an interview Wednesday that "it is remote because there is not at present a diocese with sufficient Indian population to elect a bishop."

"Most of our Indians are scattered across the country and are found in a great number of dioceses," he said.

It should be noted that he has never been at the actual scene when the violence started. He has been on the other side of town, out of state, or just out of pocket during the actual violence.

During the violence which followed admission of 12 Negroes at Clinton High School last fall, Kasper was in jail at Knoxville, Tenn.

U.S. Judge Robert L. Taylor sentenced him to a year in prison for fomenting that violence on grounds Kasper had violated his injunction against interfering with admitting Negro students to Clinton High School.

Kasper, 27-year-old graduate of New York's Columbia University, is appealing the federal convictions and is free on bail.

NOTED POLITICIAN Shoots Himself

NEW YORK (AP) — Clendenin J. Ryan, 50-year-old millionaire reformer and stormy figure in New York politics in recent years, shot and killed himself today at his Manhattan home.

Police said he took his life with a .45-calibre automatic pistol.

Ryan took a keen interest in New York City politics, beginning with the race for mayor in 1933 of Fiorello La Guardia.

CUBANS SEIZE Rebels' Radio

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Cuban police Wednesday night seized a clandestine rebel radio station in a suburb of Havana.

Taken with the owner, police said, were tape-recordings of rebel messages.

A bomb blast meanwhile gravely injured a 27-year-old man identified as a rebel bomber. Bombers in Cuba have been blamed on followers of rebel leader Fidel Castro.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn no longer is on the approved textbook list for New York city's elementary and junior high schools.

Miss Ethel Huggard, associate school superintendent in charge of curriculum development, confirmed Wednesday that three textbook contracts for the book have not been renewed in the last two years.

NOT A TEXT BOOK

"Huckleberry Finn" has been criticized by some Negroes as racially offensive. A spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said he is unaware of any organized protest against the book. However, he said, the NAACP strongly objects to "racial slurs" in Twain's works.

Miss Huggard denied the book was dropped because it contained passages derogatory to Negroes. It was felt the story was really not a textbook.

TENNESSEE UNEASY

NASHVILLE (AP) — School officials, hoping for a permanent end to violence after a day of uneasy calm, kept doors open to racially mixed first grades today. They were backed by police and prospects of a federal injunction.

Mayor Ben West and U.S. district attorney Fred Elledge, Jr., prepared a petition for federal judge William E. Miller, seeking an injunction to prevent interference with admitting Negroes to classes here.

Local Band Primed For Rootin' Tootin' Show

Kelowna Junior Band is prepared to put on a rootin'-tootin' show for Kelownians at the Calgary-Winnipeg football game next Saturday.

But before they leave for the stampede city, Kelownians will have a chance to see and hear their new numbers.

Thursday evening at 6:30 the band will stage a dress rehearsal in City Park Oval.

Led by six majorettes, the sixty piece band will display snappy drill formations—ten gallon hats, six-guns, chuck wagons and spurs are some of them—to marching music with a Western theme.

The band is rated one of the best in British Columbia, and is conducted by Mark Tose, warmly received at the 1955 Stampede.

This will be their second trip to Calgary.

Local Band Primed For Rootin' Tootin' Show

Kelowna Junior Band is prepared to put on a rootin'-tootin' show for Kelownians at the Calgary-Winnipeg football game next Saturday.

But before they leave for the stampede city, Kelownians will have a chance to see and hear their new numbers.

Thursday evening at 6:30 the band will stage a dress rehearsal in City Park Oval.

Led by six majorettes, the sixty piece band will display snappy drill formations—ten gallon hats, six-guns, chuck wagons and spurs

are some of them—to marching music with a Western theme.

The band is rated one of the best in British Columbia, and is conducted by Mark Tose, warmly received at the 1955 Stampede.

This will be their second trip to Calgary.

Cubans Seize Rebels' Radio

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Cuban police Wednesday night seized a clandestine rebel radio station in a suburb of Havana.

Taken with the owner, police said, were tape-recordings of rebel messages.

A bomb blast meanwhile gravely injured a 27-year-old man identified as a rebel bomber. Bombers in Cuba have been blamed on followers of rebel leader Fidel Castro.

The distinguished actor Donald Crisp links together a series of unusual dramatic performances which highlight Scotland's rich and colorful heritage. Filmed entirely on location in authentic setting, the sequences recreate the failure of Roman conquest in the Border Country, Columbia's courageous introduction of Christianity to the King of the Picts

Basketball Facing Another Year of Waxing Enthusiasm

By GEORGE INGLIS

Basketball should have another big year in the Orchard City this year, if the number of timber-toppers with king-size hands striding the streets these days are any indication.

Judging by the gleam in Hank Tostenson's eyes these days, the Oilers are not going to be content to stop with an interior championship this year, either, but have plans to go all the way to the provincial crown so narrowly missed last year.

Hank, genial coach of the Oilers, interior senior "B" champs, is currently hard at work guiding the Orioles to the top in the Okanagan-Mainline Baseball playoffs, but he wasn't too busy to take five last night to have a look at the prospects for the casaba game in the city this year.

The prospects? They were never better. Last year Hank added a powerful trio of ball players from "down south", in the person of Bill Martino, Bob Radies and Bud Englesby, and they are still living in Kelowna and rarin' to go again this year.

The hottest piece of news for the hoop mentor, however, was the news that Charles "Chuck" Dean is hanging up his shingle as a Certified General Accountant in Kelowna, as soon as he finishes eight more months of his course in same.

Dean, a 6'2" wing, broke into senior "A" ball at the tender age of 18, just seven years ago, and has been flipping them in ever since. Brother of Bill Dean, Kelowna stalwart and high-scoring ace for the past few years, Chuck was runner-up to Al Brown of the Arctic Club in his first year for the Rookie-of-the-Year award in his first year in senior company.

Another happy addition is Peter Bulatovitch, a new phys'ed teacher at the high school. An exponent of the two-handed jump shot, which is a tough shot to guard against, Peter has to rise up in the air somewhat to come up with some of the timber-toppers on the floor, but takes off his hat to no one in the game.

Peter, an enthusiastic soccer player as well as a hoopster, has already turned out in strip with the Hotspurs, the senior club, and should be a welcome addition to the sports education picture in the Orchard City.

HAPPY HALL (IDAY)

Probably a happier fella than Tostenson, however, to see the tide of enthusiasm for the hoop game still waxing in the city is a lean, crew-cut type with a hungry look every time you mention a stray basketball player.

Elected president of the local association this year, Bob Hall brings a wealth of experience to the association. It's a return engagement for him, since he has done everything but carry basketball on his back since coming to the Orchard City in his attempt to stimulate some of the enthusiasm for the game they have in Port Alberni, his former home.

Presently vice-president of the B.C. basketball body, Bob is also a past president of the Interior Basketball Association, former referee-in-chief, coach of the Meikles' Teddy Bears, Kelowna's senior "B" women's team, and a No. 1 basketball booster in the city.

FAN FODDER

In keeping with the rising interest in the game, the association are laying plans to have at least three senior "A" teams in from the coast, two of them before the season opens on Oct. 28.

They hope to start out with Cloverdale on Saturday, Oct. 19, and either the Vancouver Oilers or the Cloverleafs on the Sat., Nov. 2. The Cloverleafs are Chuck Dean's old Alma Mater.

Plans will also be matured as soon as possible to have some of the teams from the neighboring state of Washington—Twisp, Okanogan, Oroville and Brewster—up for exhibition games during the season on open nights.

Regular league play will be doubled, as far as the men's senior "B" team schedule is concerned, although the girls will play their regular number of games.

With the entry of Summerland into the league, and the deletion of Princeton this year, the league will be tightened up geographically.

Each club will meet the other club twice at home and twice away, instead of once as formerly. This will give Kelowna fans the chance to watch the men in action eight times in regular league play.

Mounties Choked Off By Portland Three-run Clout

VANCOUVER (AP)—Portland Beavers choked off a ninth-inning rally to edge the Mounties 5-4 in a Pacific Coast League baseball game before 5,027 fans last night.

Vancouver had two runs in, two out, and two on when Portland manager Bill Posedel brought in his fourth pitcher, righthander Ray Shore, to pitch to Kal Segrist. Shore walked Segrist to load the bases. But he fired a third strike past the swinging Joe Frazier to end the rally and give Portland its first win in three games with the Mounties.

THREE-RUN HOMER
Portland won it in the ninth when pinch hitter Frank Carwell slammed a three-run homer over the left field wall.

The Beavers opened the scoring in the second, when they scored two runs on one hit, an error, and a sacrifice fly. Vancouver got one back in the second when Frazier hit his 15th homer of the campaign. Mounties tied it, up 2-2 in the fourth on two hits.

Dolan Nichols, the second Beaver pitcher, took the win; his eighth against five defeats. The loss went to Charles Beamon, his 10th against 12 victories.

The loss left Vancouver three games behind the league-leading San Francisco Seals, who were baten 3-1 by Los Angeles.

LINE SCORE

Portland 020 000 003—5 6 0
Vancouver 010 100 002—4 0 1

Cavers New Champ Huckster Golfers

KIMBERLEY, B.C. (CP)—Don Cavers of Lethbridge, Alta., won the Sixth Annual Hucksters Golf Championship, beating Peter McIntyre of Trail, B.C., by one stroke. Their scores were 153 and 152.

Some 75 entries from Lethbridge, Nelson, Trail, Cranbrook, Spokane, Wash.; Coeur D'Alene, Idaho; Fernie, Wardner, and Kimberley took part.

Reg Stone of Trail won the first flight, with Jack Lanchester of Spokane runner-up.

LADIES' BOWLING OPENS

"Here goes nothing!" Looking a trifle uncertain about the direction of her five-pin ball, Dolores Clark is caught in action by Courier sports editor George Inglis, just as the ball leaves her hand. Clark, a member of the Sweet 16 team, is one of the bowlers in the city commercial ladies' five-pin league, which swung into action last night in the Bowladrome Alleys on Lawrence Avenue. The mixed league starts its fall session tonight.

Cards Crowding Braves, Maybe Miracle Finish?

By ED WILKS

(Associated Press Sports Writer) Is that a miracle or a mirage taking shape in the National League pennant race?

A miracle finish, such as New York Giants staged in 1951, is like a tango. It takes two. Even a spirited sprint down the stretch, such as Giants' 37-7 drive six years ago, won't bring a payoff unless the leader collapses, as did Brooklyn Dodgers when they lost 23 of their last 49 and then blew it all to Giants in the three-game pennant playoff.

That's the situation in the National League now. The second-place St. Louis Cardinals have won seven of their last eight while Milwaukee's first-place Braves, perhaps building pressure by insisting there isn't any, have lost five of their last eight. Cards stayed with it Wednesday night, battering Philadelphia 14-6 and climbing within 4½ games of Braves, who were dropped 2-1 by Pittsburgh Pirates. Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's ace, was sidetracked in his bid to become the majors' first 20-game winner of the year after winning nine straight.

Third-place Brooklyn, seven games behind Milwaukee, defeated Chicago Cubs 9-1 in the only other game scheduled.

Cardinals, hitting their one-game scoring high of the season, rapped 15 hits off ex-mate Harvey Haddix and five relievers while collecting a pair of six-run innings. Del Ennis drove in three runs with his 22nd and 23rd home runs.

FOILES FOILES SPAHN
Spahn, who had been Milwaukee's stopper, had the goods on Pirates except for Hank Foiles. Foiles had a perfect day with three of the Cubs' eight hits, swatting a home run that tied it 1-1 in the third and driving home the clincher with a two-out single in the ninth. Spahn, now 19-9, had been 4-0 vs. the Pirates. Righthander Ron Kline won his sixth in a row with a six-hitter for an 8-15 record. Andy Pafko, who homered in the second, and Del Rice had four of the Braves' hits.

Dodgers smacked 15 hits, 14 of them singles, and nailed it with six runs in the fourth that handed Bob Rush a 15th defeat. Johnny Podres hit his major league high with a 12th victory, allowing six hits and losing his bid for seventh shutout on Ernie Banks' 37th home run—11th against the Brooks—in the second.

BOTTOMS TIED FOR TOP
Calgary's Lynn Bottoms and Saskatchewan's Larry Isbell are tied for leadership in the pass receiving average. Bottoms has caught all 12 passes tossed his way while Isbell has latched onto all 11 to come his way. Carpenter has caught the most passes 22 out of 26 for the most yardage, 339, and the most touchdowns, three.

Calgary's Ted Duncan is the top punter with an average of 44.6 yards on 43 kicks. Edmonton's Bill Walker is averaging 41.4 yards on 47 punts and Isbell has an identical average on 46 kicks. Winnipeg's Gerry Vincent is averaging 40.6 on 49. Two of Isbell's and one of Duncan's punts have been blocked.

Calgary's Harvey Wylie is tops in kickoff returns with an average of 27.4 yards on seven runbacks. Bailey is averaging 28.1 on 10. Saskatchewan's Harry Lunn 25.2 on nine and Winnipeg's Leo Lewis 24.8 on nine.

In punt returns Winnipeg's Gordie Rowland is averaging 8.6 yards on 21 runbacks. Edmonton's Leigh McMillan is averaging 7.3 yards on 17 and B.C.'s Ted Hunt is averaging seven yards on 24.

Saskatchewan's Reg Whitthouse leads the way in convert percentage, splitting the uprights 13 times in 15 attempts. Winnipeg's Buddy Leake has booted nine of 11 and Edmonton's Joe Mobra 11 of 21.

Hill has made the longest run from scrimmage so far this season, 76 yards against B.C., while Tripucka has tossed the longest completed pass, 76 yards to completion average of 61.43 in Carpenter against Winnipeg.

Hoop Group Shoots High

Basketball enthusiasts plan another year of flourishing in the Orchard City.

Rising on the waxing tide of enthusiasm, newly-elected president Bob Hall said last night at the local hoop association's annual meeting, "It looks like we're going to have the best year yet."

Plans call for an entry in the senior "C" loop this year, and more emphasis on kids basketball, in addition to the activities of the defending interior champion club — Meikles' Teddy Bears and B.A. Oilers.

BOOKS IN BLACK

Reports showed the coffers filled with $190, all black, and player possibilities, especially in the men's team, appeared to be the best in a decade.

Hall, vice-president of the BCABA as well as local president, heads a strong executive, with Roy Thompson as vice-president, and Bill and Chuck Dean, partners in a projected accounting firm, sharing the tasks of secretary and treasurer.

Executive members of the club are: Jack Burch, Mrs. Joe (Mary) Welder, Marg Vansantan, Doug Dean, and Hank Tostenson.

EXHIBITIONS PLANNED

Discussion of the possibilities of bringing in senior "A" teams for exhibition matches was sparked by president-elect Hall, and Chuck Dean, a new arrival on the sports scene here, and former regular on the Vancouver Cloverleafs senior "A" club, said he felt it would be beneficial to both clubs concerned.

Tentative plans were laid to have the Cloverdale club visit on Saturday, Oct. 19, and either the Cloverleafs or the Oilers on the following Saturday, with a third exhibition to be played early in January if possible.

Other exhibition games will also be arranged, if possible, between some of the clubs from Bulatovitch—volunteered to help with the coaching of the youngsters.

SATURDAY GAMES

Game nights this year in the Orchard City will be Saturday, with Kelowna meeting each of the other teams in the league twice, for a total of eight home league games. Other teams include Penticton, Summerland, Vernon and Kamloops.

Tostenson, coach of the interior champion Oilers last year, expressed happiness over this year's prospects, which include two players scaling 6'4", Martino and Radies; one 6'2", Chuck Dean, and one 6'5", Ron Young, besides a lot of "shorties" at 6'.

Hall, coach of the interior champion Teddy Bears, will again guide the girls this year. Entry of the senior "C" team into the valley league will depend on the player interest, the members agreed.

First league game in Kelowna will be on Saturday, Nov. 9, when Kelowna hosts Vernon.

Shamrocks Take Jun. Boxla Lead

BRAMPTON, Ont. (CP)—Victoria Shamrocks came East with a reputation for speed, tricky passing and accurate shooting. Their performance Tuesday night in the Canadian junior lacrosse finals against Brampton Excelsiors proved the tributes were more than just press clippings.

The Western club rebounded with eight straight goals in the final period to take a 15-9 decision in the first game of the best-of-seven series for the Minto Cup.

REGINA (CP)—Johnny Bright and Normie Kwong, power-running fullbacks for Edmonton Eskimos, are showing the way in the ground-gaining department of the Western Interprovincial Football Union. It is shown in statistics released Wednesday.

SOME MINISTERS ARE CRAZY DRIVERS

BRANDON, Man. (CP)—Rev. H. H. Clark, Bishop of Edmonton, says some Anglican priests "are crazy drivers and I often thought of taking out flight insurance before climbing into some of their cars." He said "one priest he knew ruined two cars on successive weekends." B.A. OILERS' NEW ADDITION Powerful addition to the Orchard City's basketball strength is Charles "Chuck" Dean, 25-year-old former Vancouver Cloverleafs high-scoring wing.

The 6'2", 190 lb. forward, brother of Bill Dean, B.A. Oilers star, has come to the city to open his own accounting business, in partnership with his brother. He will strip with coach Hank Tostenson's interior senior "B" defending champs.

Record Number Of TV Outlets For Title Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — A record number of 173 theatres in 129 cities already have contracted for the closed circuit telecast of the Ray Robinson - Carmen Basilio middleweight title fight at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 23, a theatre network official said today.

Nathan L. Halpern, president of Theatre Network Television Inc., said requests still are being received from other theatres. He said the theatres have 503,023 seats available.

Previous high for closed circuit TV was the Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title fight, Sept. 21, 1955 when 133 theatres in 93 cities carried the show.

Oilers Plan Top Flight '57 Club

Kelowna's B.A. Oilers, interior men's senior "B" basketball defending champions, have a sizzling line-up planned for the forthcoming season.

Biggest gun among the replacements will be Charles "Chuck" Dean, brother of Bill Dean, one of last year's stars. A senior "A" ball player for the past seven years with the Vancouver Cloverleafs, he is an average 22-point man in the top company.

Peter Bulatovitch, a new physical education teacher from Quessnel, already turning out with the Oilers in soccer, is also a high-scoring threat.

Ron Young, a former navy man, who stands 6'4" in his stocking feet, is now working in insurance in town and will be setting them up under the colors of the Oilers this year.

Dean, a well-known basketball figure, has planned to come to the Okanagan for the past few years, but wanted to finish his education as a certified General Accountant first. He plans to set up his own office here.

Bulatovitch, whose two-handed jump shot makes him a peril of the pipes, was one of the high-scoring threats for Prince George in their series against coach Hank Tostenson's Oilers in their quest of the interior title.

Coach Tostenson will now have some of the necessary depth he lacked last year in his final series for the provincial title against Victoria "Dickenson and Dunn's."

He is expecting his trio of sophomores — Bill Martino, Bob Radies and Bud Englesby, to return to the colors this year.

Veterans Bruce Butcher, Roy Thompson and Bill Dean are all expected to be out in strip again this year, when the season gets under way.

Skyscraper Young, who will be a match for Radies, the other timber-topper, is looking for a house with at least two bedrooms for himself and family. Any offers may be phoned to sports editor, 2802.

NELSON (CP) — Ray Metcalfe, secretary of the Western International Hockey League, announced Friday that officials already signed for the 1957-58 season which will begin Oct. 19 are Al Toikka of Port Arthur, Ont., and Bing Juckes of Brandon, Man.

(Worcestershire's record in a drawn match with Sussex includes six points awarded when they batted in the fourth innings and were not out when the scores were equal).

Seven Provinces To Carry World Series Over TV

TORONTO (CP) — The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation says that 24 television stations will transmit this year's World Series live to all but three provinces in Canada.

Locally, radio station CKOV will carry all games live from the network; CHBC-TV will be carrying the game on film on a delayed basis, and the Black Knight Television will be carrying the games providing pending arrangements are completed satisfactorily.

Four stations in the Maritimes will receive the National Broadcasting Company's telecast from Portland, Me., by transatlantic cable—the first time the series has been shown live in Canada since Prince Edward Island is not connected by microwave to the Maritimes mainland, it will not carry the series. The other provinces not serviced are Newfoundland and Alberta.

TV AND RADIO

Of the 24 television stations which will carry the event in Canada, 18 are privately-owned. The CBC's network now extends from Saskatoon to Quebec.

Facilities for relaying programs coast-to-coast on an all-Canadian hookup will not be completed until next January, a spokesman said.

Vancouver and other west coast cities will receive the series through a relay from Seattle, Wash.

On radio, the series will be carried by 78 radio stations on the Dominion, Trans-Canada and CBC French radio networks. Of the 78, 73 are privately-operated.

SETS ARCHERY RECORD

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bill Carnes of Victoria set a B.C. archery record at the two-day championships here.

He won the men's freestyle target championship with 1,440 points, more than 200 ahead of his closest competitor, and broke the established York record for the province.

Mounties' Wins Impressive, But May Not Suffice

(By the Associated Press)

After 13 futile days, Vancouver has finally narrowed San Francisco's Pacific Coast League lead, but at this stage it may not do the Mounties much good.

Vancouver beat Portland 4-2 Tuesday night while the Seals were defeating Los Angeles, 5-3 and losing 3-2. That enabled the Mounties to move within 3 games of San Francisco. Every day since Aug. 29 Vancouver had stood 3½ games away as the Mounties traded win and loss-fors with the Seals.

Vancouver is now assured of second place but any combination of San Francisco victories and Mountie defeats that totals four will give the Seals their first PCL championship since 1946, and their last as well, since the New York Giants are moving to the Bay City next season. Both teams have six games remaining.

Seattle, continued to hold its edge over San Diego for fourth place, trading 2-0 victories in a doubleheader with third place Hollywood. The Padres also split a doubleheader, beating Sacramento 5-3 and losing 3-2.

Flying Swede To Try Out For Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Sweden's Sven Tumba Johansson will be among the 53 players who will report to the opening of Boston Bruins' training camp here Sunday.

The largest squad in 20 years will report to general manager Lynn Patrick, coach Milt Schmidt and a staff of training managers and coaches of the Springfield, Mass., and Victoria, B.C., farm clubs.

Johansson was a star forward on the Swedish national team which won the world's amateur championships in Moscow last winter.

Dear, No Deer Until Sunday

Deer season opens on Sunday, not Saturday, as is commonly being discussed among eager local Nimrods, warns Game Warden Don Ellis.

The only thing hunters will be able to bag on Saturday are grouse, of any variety. Game regulations are now available in printed form from all sports stores.

Fishermen are liable to arrest for molesting the Kokanee fish in any way, the warden warned also. Even damaging the fishes' eggs by running in the streams is an offence, he pointed out.

Braves Have Ducats Just Need Go-Ahead

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee Braves are having World Series tickets printed but fans have been warned against trying to buy them now.

The club said Tuesday it had received authorization from baseball commissioner Ford Frick to start printing tickets.

William Eberly, Braves ticket director, requested fans not to send orders for tickets until the club announces a starting deadline for ticket orders.

How Now, Mr. Capozzi?

VANCOUVER (CP) — Do tell us, Mr. Capozzi, what's wrong with our B.C. Lions?

The Western International Football Union club has lost five and won one game in the present season.

The Vancouver Sun passed on the questions of some disappointed fans to General Manager Herb Capozzi and published the questions and his answers Wednesday. The exchange in part:

Q. Does the club have trouble obtaining high-calibre imports and if so, why?

A. Yes, every club has trouble getting top college players—it used to be possible to find players in the National Football League who were fully aware of the conditions there and were willing to leave. But now we can't find players are harder to get.

Q. Is it true that coach Clem Crowe lacks the necessary contacts to get top college players?

A. As far as I know he seems to have the respect of all the U.S. coaches. But what we have not done but are now going to do is to bring in more U.S. coaches to our training camps to help us and to acquaint them with our game.

Q. We have had Ab Wimberley of Louisiana State for the past two years. We intend to bring in more and more good coaches like him.

A. What is the matter with the club on the field as in the case of losing games in the second half?

A. Saskatchewan lost six top players last year. Gordon Sturtz, Mario Demarco, Mel Beckett and Ray Syrnysk were lost in the plane crash. John Wozniak retired and Harry Lampman went to Hamilton.

Q. That has been enough to knock a second-place club down to last place.

A. We have only Paul Cameron, By Bailey, Primo Villanueva, Dan Edwards and Bob Hantla back from last year's club.

Q. In that comparison with Saskatchewan, I think lies the answer to the question.

A. Are we doing enough to build and encourage Canadian talent?

A. We may have neglected doing what we should. It's easy to say that in my position now. It might not have been so easy when the club began.

Every Canadian Club Member Can Reap A Rich Reward

The fall and winter season is about to get underway in the Okanagan and many organizations are now planning their schedules. Most important among these, perhaps, is the Canadian Club. The club is simply a number of people who meet at intervals around a dinner table to hear distinguished Canadians or visitors from other countries speak on issues of national or international importance. The purpose of these groups, according to the bylaws, "is to foster patriotism and to encourage the study of the institutions, history, literature, and resources of Canada, and to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the Dominion as may be desirable and expedient."

Locally the Canadian Clubs are now planning for an active season. During the past two years they have experienced a great revival in interest and this year appears equally as promising. This is indicative of the change which has taken place in Canadian Club speakers in recent years. There was a time when the speakers were inclined to be academic and dull and, sometimes, obviously not too sure of their subject. However, during the past year or two it is safe to say that there have been very few speakers who had not a point and who could not put it across in an interesting manner.

The Canadian Club probably supplies the most informative program covering a wide variety of current subjects of any organization in any city, this province, or this country. The policy of the valley clubs is not to accept speakers unless they are known to be of a certain standard; fewer meetings of higher calibre.

The Canadian Club is not a flag-waving organization. In fact, locally, it does not sing the national anthems even very well. Nor is it a small, compact group ringed with membership restrictions. Any person may be a member and, indeed, persons of all races and creeds are welcomed, although the holding of office is usually restricted to Canadian citizens. Every person living in this area may become a member of the local club. That statement stands regardless of racial and political background, creed, color, and financial condition.

Many Canadian Clubs, including the local one, do no more than arrange meetings. This may sound rather purposeless, but it is part of a deliberate plan to get a large audience that represents a good cross-section of the community, who can feel welcome just to come and listen without being embarrassed if they have no time to do some sort of service work.

The local clubs believe that one of the most practical ways to unify our country and to further the process of nationhood is for each of us to learn more about other parts of Canada, about important national issues while they are timely, and about Canada's position in the world—and all this from a variety of viewpoints. Speakers generally are encouraged to treat their subject objectively and to stimulate the thinking of their audiences that they may form their own conclusions.

Okanagan cities are highly organized, but of all organizations, the Canadian Club has the most to offer in an informative way on current domestic and world affairs. The intellectual level of Okanagan cities is high and the wonder of it is that the Canadian Clubs in the Valley have not more members than they can accommodate. Any person who reads newspapers or listens to radio news and who desires to have some understanding of the significance of what is happening in the world should be a member of a Canadian Club. He will be richly repaid. These clubs perform a most useful service to their community, and should be supported on that basis—but much more important—the individual member reaps a rich reward in understanding and knowledge and the stimulation of his thinking he will obtain. Our friendly advice is, if you are interested in knowing what is making the world tick today, join a Canadian Club.

Canadians Are Not Alone

As the Financial Post recently pointed out "monetary authorities almost everywhere are maintaining or strengthening their grip on the money supply, while the demand for money continues to press upward on interest rates. Since this spring no less than eight countries have raised their bank rates, some of them twice. They are the United States, France, Japan, India, Switzerland, Sweden, Spain and Belgium."

This is interesting because the policy of the Diefenbaker government would appear to be to relax controls. One might suppose from the utterances of some politicians and some businessmen that Canada is the only nation in the world that enforces the so-called "tight money" policy.

In the United States they have been holding a kind of national seminar on tight money. The Federal Reserve Board, like our Bank of Canada, has been under fire in Congress for making money too expensive—that is to say, for refusing to expand the money supply and thus aggravate an inflation already serious enough, as every housewife knows.

The Federal Reserve Board appears to have survived the attack. It has not relaxed its policy. On the contrary, American interest rates have lately risen again. As a result, since we borrow so largely in the United States, our rates have risen also.

All this would suggest that we in Canada are not suffering from some maladministration by the Bank of Canada. It would suggest that we are involved—as we certainly must be—in the general economic processes of the world where we sell so much of our production and borrow so much of our capital.

"In such a world scene," The Financial Post observes, "Canada could not deviate very far from U.S. policy, whatever Canadian sentiment might be. And in fact the inflationary pressures which demand a tight control on credit are worse in this country than in the United States. It is a serious matter when our costs rise more than American costs, and the unhappy story of import competition against Canadian manufacturers carries a dreadful warning. How long will it take labor and business to realize this?"

How long indeed? If we continue to raise our costs by the familiar wage-price spiral, a spiral which no monetary policy and no action by the central bank can control, then of course our competitive position in the world market will be eroded, as has already happened in the British Columbia lumber industry.

The chief victims will not be the rich, who can look after themselves, but the workers whose jobs depend, more in this country than in most others, on exports.

The Financial Post is quite right also in saying that "an increase in the money supply appeals to some Canadians as a relief from immediate troubles. But at a time when wages, production costs and prices are all heading obstinately upward, the long term effect would be to worsen the whole competitive position of the Canadian economy."

Canada's economic troubles," The Post adds, "don't stem from monetary policy and monetary policy alone can't cure them. But monetary restraints reminds us in concrete fashion that stability is of greater worth than the illusion of prosperity which comes from pocketing more and more dollars worth less and less."

Primary Issue: Civil Rights

During the past week there have been disturbing and distressing news reports from the southern states of the United States. The desegregation of education, ordered by the U.S. Supreme Court, has been opposed with disorders and violence in some cities.

Much of the hostility in the South to civil rights is centered in the field of education—against integration and against financial help for those states where school construction lags behind because of tax difficulties.

However, the educational problems are actually secondary. The primary issue concerns the ballot box. It is more difficult to deny political rights to the educated Negro than to the ignorant. A more plausible case can be made for barring the Negro from the voting booth if he is illiterate and uninformed, although, of course, precisely the same argument should lie against the ignorant white south or north alike.

It is 181 years since the Declaration of Independence was signed, but the political equality and justice which Jefferson preached has not been achieved. Yet it will surely come. The enlightened white of the south knows it. The Negro believes it and knows it, else certainly he would have turned to radical, even communist, leadership. That he has patiently and hopefully waited year after year for receipt of the inalienable right described by Jefferson and proclaimed anew with burning prophecy by Lincoln speaks well for the intelligence and loyalty of the Negro.

Let the Negro be educated, let him cease to be an economic catpaw and a feudal leftover, and he may be safely entrusted with the right of people of a democracy. In Lincoln's blazing challenge, this is the "great task remaining" before the United States. Nobody is free until everyone is free—else that country's vaunted Declaration is a fraud and untrue.

force Warrior, and Lt. Robert Bridgman, platoon commander of the Queen's Own Rifles Canadian army. About 700 Canadians and U.S. infantrymen took part in the post-blast exercise.

UNITED KINGDOM OPINION

Wolfenden Report Causes Controversy

Regularly, the government over here sets up commissions or committees to probe into one aspect or other of British life. In nine cases out of ten, the reports that these bodies produce go into a pigeonhole somewhere in a government office in Whitehall. There has just been produced an exception to the rule. Just out — after three years' deliberation — is the Wolfenden committee report on homosexuals, offences and prostitution. During its three years, two members of the committee resigned. Now the report comes out — and it is by no means unanimous in its main suggestion—that homosexual behaviour in private should no longer be a criminal offence.

It was a Scotsman, Mr. James Adair, on the committee who fought the inclusion of this suggestion, and refused to add his name to it in the 155-page report that has cost, some estimate, over $21,280 to produce.

"FULL OF DANGER" London's "Daily Mail" says that the report so far as this main recommendation on homosexuality is concerned is "full of danger." It points out that the committee said "it is important that the limited modification which we propose should not be interpreted... as a general licence to adult homosexuals to behave as they please." And then the "Mail" adds with sound common sense: "But how else could it be interpreted?"

This is the line taken by most newspapers on the topic. But critical as they are, they applaud the committee's call for further research and treatment of homosexuality.

Also getting applause is the committee's other main recommendation—that fines to prostitutes should go up, and imprisonment introduced for habitual offenders.

At the moment the law as it stands here is archaic and ludicrous. For evidence, go to any of the police courts in the central London area during the morning sessions. It is then, during the first five or ten minutes, that the prostitutes picked up the night before are wheeled in after an incident.

At the rate of about three every two minutes—I timed it recently at Bow Street's magistrates' courts, just off the Strand—the women appeared, were fined one or two pounds, and released. Top penalty at the moment is just £32—not for prostitution, but for acting.

The police in the neighbourhood have little trouble arresting the ladies of the town. One policeman told me that the women regard the periodic fines as another way of paying income-tax!

Now the committee want the fines up to £250 for the first offence, £500 for the second, and imprisonment of up to three months for the third.

CALL GIRLS? This move, if it is introduced, would have the effect of getting most of the prostitutes off the streets. At times it is pretty disgusting when you walk around some of the areas in the hinterland of Piccadilly here with the parades of prostitutes. These might be cleared off the streets. But then might come the call-girl racket.

The Wolfenden committee's report—the body is named after its chairman, Sir John Wolfenden, 51-year-old vice-chancellor of Reading University near London—is sure not to follow the example of its paper predecessors and wind up in a pigeonhole.

But it will be some time—not, perhaps, in the lifetime of the present Parliament—before it is discussed in the House of Commons here and some of the recommendations go on to the statute books.

In the meantime, though, the air has been cleared a little.

BESIDE THE SEASIDE Members of the Labor Opposition party have been studying the Wolfenden Report with half a mind this week.

The other half has been occupied by the annual Trades Union Congress being held this year beside the seaside at the northern England holiday resort of Blackpool. From Blackpool most of the holiday-makers have gone home, but the T.U.C. delegates are keeping the resort lively enough.

The T.U.C. is closely linked with the Labor party here, and this explains why Labor Leader Hugh Gaitskell went to Blackpool for the congress's opening sessions.

Gaitskell favours the "softly, softly" type of state ownership now—the Labor party, for instance, acquiring ownership of control of huge industrial concerns by the backdoor method of share-buying in the ordinary commercial market. The T.U.C., however, want more "straight" nationalisation, as happened with the power, coal, and transport industries.

MACBETH, 1914 On the show business circuit, things are quiet. A small theatre company, miles away from London's West End, has had a shot at making "Macbeth" more up to date and putting it in the uniforms of the 1914-18 War. It might have been better if they had remembered to keep the poetry intact.

There is a Canadian flavour about a new British film called "Campbell's Kingdom," a yarn written originally by Hammond Innes with the background of dirty work in the Rockies. It is meaty stuff, even if instead of going to Canada the film-makers went to the Italian Dolomites. They looked very Canadian Dolomite to me.

NO CHANGE But the best story of the week comes with a manifesto issued by a Suffolk family called Sneezum. Thirteen of them announced that they thought Sneezum was a fine old name and they were determined not to change it.

The proclamation came after news that another batch of Sneezums had changed their names to Betts recently. It looks as if there is a nice slice of clan warfare brewing up...

U.K. Will Buy No. 1 Grains

WINNIPEG (CP) — Britain's minister of agriculture today predicted Canada's harvest this year of high-quality wheat will have United Kingdom purchases of hard wheat from the United States.

Rt. Hon. Derick Heathcoat Amory, touring Canada at the invitation of the federal government, said because of previous low-protein content of Canadian wheat the United Kingdom had turned to the U.S. for a considerable part of its imports last year.

As soon as British millers are able to obtain high-protein wheat from Canada, however, he said, their entire hard-wheat business will return to Canada.

Only Four Horses Hit By Disease

Only four Okanagan Valley horses have acquired sleeping sickness.

Quick action of Glenmore veterinarian Dr. A. S. Clerke is credited with holding close check on the dread disease which broke out in the Kelowna area two weeks ago.

Dr. Clerke, after receiving the first report, quickly consulted with local medical health authorities and government officials and followed through with urgent requests to Indianapolis for special vaccine serum. He wound up his second round of vaccinations today.

Meanwhile, officials said, the Kelowna district horse has been shot.

Another case is being treated in Kamloops and two more have been reported from the Oliver area.

The disease, known to science as equine encephalitis, is believed to be carried by mosquitoes, which, according to officials, pick it up from birds through ordinary "biting." The insects pass it on to horses in the same manner.

Authorities are not certain where birds pick up the germ or how it develops.

This is the second time in 10 years the disease has struck in the Okanagan Valley. It has broken out in various areas of the United States from time to time.

Symptoms, Dr. Clerke told The Courier, usually include crazed actions on the part of the animals afflicted.

Convict Driver Operating Car Without Care

(By Courier Staff Reporter) VERNON — Convicted on a charge of driving without due care and attention, Ronald Coatsworth, 3001-39th Avenue, Vernon, was fined $50 and costs or one month in jail when he appeared before Magistrate Frank Smith in city police court here Tuesday.

RCMP Constable Alex Marchak testified the accused was charged on August 17 after an incident which happened at 10 p.m. on 27th Street. He said he was on the road waving down traffic with a flashlight and had to jump clear of the car driven by the accused. The flashlight was knocked out of his hand and the accused stopped 130 feet from him.

The patrol car was parked on the west shoulder of the road with the lights and red flasher on, he said.

Gordon Lindsay represented the accused.

About 30 cases have been reported among the 6,000 troops from 16 countries serving with the international force. Only three Canadians were reported affected.

OTTAWA REPORT

Labor Dept. Has New Look

Ottawa: Job-hunters across Canada are daily growing in numbers. Many of them are now for the first time going to their local employment office, which, they are surprised to notice, emphasizes the payment of unemployment benefits, rather than the offer of suitable work.

Our national employment service and our unemployment insurance commission share the same office and even the same staff in many communities. Job-hunters who telephone in search of work to the N.E.S. are bewildered to hear a sweet voice answer "unemployment insurance commission here."

This false emphasis has been allowed to grow up over the years. Hon. Milton Gregg, minister of labour for many years past in the previous Liberal government, seemed quite happy about an apparent benevolence which fitted in with the "Le Louie" pose of the administration.

It was a smug attitude, unshaken even by the prediction received earlier this year from the civil service experts that trouble threatened, like a dark cloud on our blue sky of prosperity. That prediction was given to the Liberal government long before the general election. There will be 500,000 Canadians out of work this coming winter.

It worried the government. Ministers were concerned about the public protest which this situation might stir up. Ministers were secretly in their hearts much more anxious about the protest which might be registered at the polls on June 16 if the public were allowed to know that 22 years of Liberal government, through wartime-boom and peacetime expansion-boom conditions, had headed the country towards a depression. Ministers were acutely anxious about what Canadians might think of a government which, with 500,000 lost jobs threatening suddenly decided on an immigration flood, unmatched in nearly half a century, which would bring an estimated 250,000 new Canadians to this country just ahead of that unemployment crisis.

RED FLAGS GREET STARR When Ottawa's Conservative M.P. and former mayor Mike Starr, first yanked into his new office as minister of labour in late June, this threatening picture was the first major piece of forecasting to greet him.

If there is one thing about a change of government which refreshes our civil service it is the wholesome flood of fresh angles and new ideas which follow it.

Hon. Michael Starr produced more than his quota of this refreshing new look. The greatest impression he got was that he found a ministry set up primarily to be "ministry to lament unemployment and to soften the hardship."

But Mike had worked as a boy for $5 a week in the composing room of the Ottawa newspaper. He had stepped up to more important and better paid jobs as he grew older. He had experienced the slump which began under Mackenzie King's Liberal government in 1928-1929. He conceived his job as minister of labour, to be to help Canadians to continue in jobs.

CHANGE OF EMPHASIS He at once put aside the mentality which he found in his department, and determined to convert it into a "ministry to create employment."

The civil servants who make up his staff here have been rejuvenated by the new enthusiasm and christian approach established by their new minister. As a result, all are working enthusiastically to put into effect the new conception of the work. When their busy cabinet minister is out for long hours, sitting on one of the many cabinet committees, they ungrudgingly stay at work late at night to assist him. For Mike Starr finds that he and his chief, the prime minister, think alike in regarding the ministry of labour as one of our most important departments of government. They have upgraded that Cinderella of the Liberals, and one consequence of this is that the minister takes prime importance in the cabinet, along with those of finance and trade and has to sit on all the most important cabinet committees.

The significance of this is that the new Conservative government is actively planning more jobs and promoting more employment.

Mining Leaders Touring Great B.C. Centres

VANCOUVER (CP) — Two "impossibles" that were made possible by the strength and ingenuity of man are the first exhibits being shown to delegates to the Commonwealth Mining and Metallurgical Congress as they start their month-long tour of Canadian mining resources.

One "impossible" is a famed mountain wilderness whose topography has been reshaped and which has become, in the hands of Aluminum Company of Canada, one of the world's great aluminum industries.

It is situated in the vicinity of Kitimat, a town of 16,000 people 400 miles north of Vancouver which expects some day to grow to 50,000 or more.

Members of one group of delegates are travelling there today by plane and train from Vancouver.

The other "impossible" is the vast works of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at Trail, B.C., which has been built upon the complex lead-zinc-iron of the Sullivan mine at Kimberley.

Members of a second group of delegates are travelling to Trail today by rail, and visit the vast operations Thursday.

Costs came to $32.65, including $27.15 for fees to bring witnesses from Vancouver.

In the collision in the early hours of August 11, extensive damage was caused to Ure's auto and a taxi, driven by Earl Raymer.

WANTED RATTLER; GOT BITE INSTEAD

A bite on the arm is Bobby Drake's reward for collecting snakes. The 15-year-old resident of Hamilton, Ont., seen above resolving anti-snake bite fears from nurse Kay Sullivan in Hamilton hospital, was bitten by a four-foot long rattler which he wanted to keep alive for his collection. A friend, who discovered the reptile in bush on the outskirts of the city, suggested it be killed. Drake vetted the idea saying he wanted to take it home and as he lifted a corner of the box which was thrown over the snake to trap it, the rattler buried its fangs in the boy's arm. It then fled into the bush.

Master Contract Being Studied By Stereotypers

TORONTO (CP) — The vice-president of the International Union of stereotypers and electrotypers said the executive is studying the possibility of pressing for a single master contract with all United States and Canadian newspapers that employ its members.

Leo J. Feeney of Newark, N.J., in a speech at the 54th annual convention of the union, said that such a move would protect union members from other printing trade unions which are moving in on the stereotypers' job jurisdiction.

Delegates and officials attacked the International Typographical Union for allegedly trying to take over stereotypers' jobs.

Shorter Working Week Not Answer Says Bennett

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier Bennett says he did not think a shorter work week was the answer to British Columbia's unemployment problem.

The premier was commenting during his press conference, on a statement from Portland by Al Hartung, president of the International Woodworkers of America, that a shorter week was the only solution to the problem of unemployment.

Mr. Bennett said that perhaps the method would solve problems somewhere else, "but not in a province like ours."

"The real solution to unemployment is more employment," he said. "There is lots of work to be done if money is made available to do it."

and will be used to purge the system of air and moisture right up to the premises of consumers. The gas will enter the inland pipe at Savona, near Kamloops, from the Westcoast Transmission line which stretches from the Peace River oil fields to the international border.

At first the purging gas will be drawn from the United States through the southern end of the line, but Peace River gas should start flowing through by the end of the month. The cleaning gas will be at 10 pounds per square inch, one-twentieth of normal pressure.

The Salmon Arm lateral will be the first to be cleaned and the first community to receive gas will be Enderby. Actual supply to consumers will start before Oct. 1, the company said.

The completed pipe now has reached the Columbia River and is only 15 miles short of its terminus.

Two Motorists Fined Following Car Accidents

Two motorists were fined $25 each this morning as a result of charges laid following collisions that caused fairly heavy damage to four autos.

John Roeske, 21, of Rutland, at first pleaded innocent and a few minutes later changed his plea to guilty to a charge of driving without due care and attention.

Joseph Zarr, 58, Kelowna, was charged with following another auto too closely. He denied that he was following too closely, giving for the reason for the collision that "I just couldn't stop in time."

Charged following a collision on Pendozi Street when Zarr's car smashed into the rear of another auto that had stopped suddenly to avoid hitting a third vehicle that had stopped waiting for traffic to pass so that a left turn could be made off Pendozi Street.

A fairly similar instance resulted in Roeske being charged. He crashed into the rear of a stopped Vancouver car that was waiting to make a left turn off Highway 97 at the "Bennoville" drive-in restaurant. He said his brakes didn't work good enough to stop in time.

Roeske's driver's licence was endorsed by the magistrate.

Vernon Board Of Trade Issues Revised Industrial Pamphlet

(By Courier Staff Reporter)

VERNON — The Vernon Board of Trade has issued a new and revised industrial folder containing a large number of interesting facts and figures in its 20 pages about the city.

Five thousand copies of the folder have been issued for distribution. The pamphlet has the theme "Vernon—a great place to live, to work, to play."

It contains all the sweeping changes locally since the last publication of a pamphlet six years ago.

The local fruit industry, agricultural production in the North Okanagan and the forest industry are included among the subjects covered by the interesting booklet.

Pole production in Vernon area, an important part of the local lumber industry, is a new section included in the booklet.

A new map of the city showing industrial areas, a complete list of clubs, a review of the city's educational facilities, communications and transportation all appear in the pamphlet in addition to several graphic illustrations of Vernon's orchards.

FIRST FIELD MANOEUVRE BLAST

The great orange fireball of the 15th atomic device to be detonated in the current series of tests blooms out over the Nevada desert lighting up the pre-dawn sky. Approximating 40,000 tons of TNT, the device, twice the size of the bomb dropped on Hiroshima, was fired from a 700-foot tower. The blast was the signal for the first field manoeuvre under actual atomic warfare conditions to begin.

PRIESTS CAN'T BIT

VATICAN CITY (Reuters) — The Vatican has forbidden Roman Catholic priests in Hungary to become members of parliament and ordered those who already are members to resign within a month. The order was issued in a decree dated July 16 by the Sacred Congregation of the Council, one of the ministries in the central government of the church.

ST. ROCH DRIVE

VANCOUVER (CP) — A drive to raise $300,000—a dollar for every person in Vancouver—has been launched to help finance the city's St. Roch Museum. Centennial project. CUTIES

YOUR HOROSCOPE

The Stars Say

An unforeseen situation may upset plans during the forenoon, but don't let this upset you. Rather, make the best of things calmly and philosophically and, during the P.M., when the plan stars influences are more generous, you should find a way of righting things. Look for some good news in the early evening.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates a prosperous year in both business and personal affairs. Take advantage of every opportunity to further job goals during the next four months, since all progress made during this period will materially affect gains throughout 1958. A sharp uptrend in financial matters is also "in the stars" during this period, but do not offset benefits by extravagance or speculation.

Originality and self-expression will be stimulated during the first six months of 1958, which should prove a great spur to those in creative work; also those in the entertainment field. Look for an opportunity to travel between next May and September and, at the same time, go out of your way to encourage new friendships and business contacts. They could prove highly valuable in the future.

A child born on this day will be efficient, determined and extremely tolerant of his fellow men.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

North-South vulnerable.

Opening lead—six of spades.

I never did find out what happens when the irresistible force meets the immovable object. When the parallel case arises in bridge, though, something's got to give.

THE PLAY:

East and South crossed swords on the opening lead in today's hand to create a most interesting duel. Two fine plays took place as they each were able to draw important inferences about the other's hand.

West opened his fourth best spade and East promptly played the jack of spades instead of the almost automatic play of the ace.

East could tell from the Rule of Eleven that South had two spades higher than the six West had led. He knew, furthermore, that one of them was the ten, nine, or eight, because if West had held these cards he would have opened the ten, the top card of a sequence. South, accordingly, could have the king or queen, but not both.

By permitting declarer to win the first spade, therefore, East could return the ace and another spade later, when he got in with the ace of hearts, and allow West to run his spade suit.

The plan was well conceived, and should have succeeded, except that East found in South a South had taken the jack he would have gone down one, but South refused the trick and now could not be beaten.

South had done a little thinking of his own. He saw that there were only 15 high card points missing, and that East could scarcely have opened the bidding without the ace of spades.

Had East played the spade ace on the opening lead and returned the jack, South would have ducked and then rumped home easily,
